

Adobe Spark Additional Terms

Updated December 8, 2021. Replaces all prior versions.

These Additional Terms govern your use of Adobe Spark and are incorporated by reference into the Adobe General Terms of Use ("General Terms") located at www.adobe.com/go/terms (these Additional Terms and the General Terms are collectively referred to as "Terms"). Capitalized terms not defined here have the same meaning as defined in the General Terms.

1. Third Party Services. Adobe Spark includes features that allow you to use and search for content from independent third-party services from within the Adobe Spark user interface and import such content directly into your Customer Project (as defined below). Adobe Spark provides access to such third-party services as a convenience only. Some third-party services or content may be offered for personal, non-commercial use only. For more information, please visit Image Use Rights: <https://www.adobe.com/go/express-imageusage>. All other requirements in the General Terms regarding use of third-party providers apply.

2. Personal Information of Adobe Spark Visitors. As between us and you, you are solely responsible for all personal information that you may collect from visitors to your Customer Projects when such visitors view, access, or use your Customer Projects. "Customer Projects" mean the projects you create using Adobe Spark such as videos, web pages and graphics. You must:

(A) comply with all data protection and privacy laws and rules applicable to personal information of visitors to your Customer Projects, which may include making a privacy policy available on or with your Customer Projects, presenting a cookie banner, obtaining and maintaining consent, etc.; and

(B) defend, indemnify, and hold us harmless from any claim, suit, or proceeding brought against us by visitors to your Customer Projects in connection with any acts or omissions with regards to personal information of such visitors.
